Please enter your name:	Please consider a 12-week period beginning mid-September and select all times that you are generally available.	Are there any days/times that should be avoided?	It was suggested during the meeting that each committee member attend 12 site visits, which would be in addition to our regularly scheduled monthly 90-minute meetings. Is 12 hours of site visits b...	Do you have any other input for staff regarding site visits?
Annie Carpenter	Tuesday mornings (between 8:00-12:00);Wednesday afternoons (between 12:00-5:00);Friday afternoons (between 12:00-5:00);	out the week of 9/24 Conflicts with block times on these dates: 9/24, 10/6, 10/15 and 10/22	I honestly cannot say. Realistically, and based on my performance in keeping up with the group, I should plan to reduce my commitment if allowed to a minimum of 6 but with a goal of 12.	I'm still open to onsite if any agencies are! Event though it takes more time, it adds so much substance to understanding and the experience.

Site visits are informative and thanks for organizing them.
Kate Burger	Tuesday mornings (between 8:00-12:00);Wednesday afternoons (between 12:00-5:00);Thursday evenings (between 4:00-7:00);Friday afternoons (between 12:00-5:00);Saturdays (between 10:00-2:00);	9/21, 10/19, 11/16, 12/21 - these are dates I have all day meetings	Yes to 12. I will likely attend more.	No, but thank you for doing all the work to set these up and attending with us!!
Kevin McAbee	Tuesday mornings (between 8:00-12:00);Thursday evenings (between 4:00-7:00);Friday afternoons (between 12:00-5:00);	I will potentially be unavailable for much of October because of work travel. Just FYI.	If the visits are bunched, this may be reasonable. For example, attending three back-to-back-to-back visits once a month may be reasonable. 12 individual visits throughout the period is a lot to ask.	I think the site visits should replace many of our regularly scheduled meetings during the three month period. Some could be scheduled at the same time as our meetings.
Kimberly Robinson	Wednesday afternoons (between 12:00-5:00);Tuesday mornings (between 8:00-12:00);Friday afternoons (between 12:00-5:00);	Tuesday afternoons. Early mornings are difficult for me but if need I can try to work something out.	12 hours works for me.	Looking forward as this will be my first go around for site visits.

| Paul Tax | Thursday evenings (between 4:00-7:00);Friday afternoons (between 12:00-5:00); | Due to increased workloads, I am somewhat limited in the number of hours I can commit during the workday. I can probably accommodate virtual visits scheduled around a lunch hour (11 a.m. to 1:00 p.m.) as well as late afternoon or evening times. Scheduling multiple site visits during work hours may be very difficult for me individually. Thank you | While the desire to have three Committee members at each site visit is laudable, having to complete 12 feels like a challenge to me (given my response to 3 above). I think recalibrating to a minimum of two Committee members would work well, and would then set at 8 to 10 the number expected for each member (if all grantees desire to have one). I feel that I could commit to this number. | Keeping in mind that time is limited and valuable, encourage grantee preparation around a series of prompts and maintain some time within the hour for questions and follow-up. I was in at least one site review in 2020 where the applicant seemed unprepared. |
