

Name	Please consider a 12-week period beginning mid-September and select all times that you are generally available.	Are there any days/times that should be avoided?	How many visits do you anticipate you might be able to attend?	Do you have any other input for staff regarding site visits?

My schedule can be unpredictable.	Make them as easy for the grantee/applicant as possible. It's a lot of pressure having the funder come in.

Brandy Bowman	Monday mornings (between 8:00-12:00);Wednesday afternoons (between 12:00-5:00);Thursday afternoons (between 12:00-5:00);	Hey! I begin a new position in a new organization on September 27th. I want to participate and will plan accordingly, but at this time I am unable to know the times and/or days of my availability in the next 12 weeks. My apologies for any inconvenience this causes you and the planning process. Please let me know if you need any additional information.	I will likely have more availability to attend virtually, but again I am unsure at this time. I am hoping at least 4/5 and more if my schedule allows.	Not at this time
Mistie Cogbill	Wednesday afternoons (between 12:00-5:00);Tuesday mornings (between 8:00-12:00);	Mondays, Thursdays, and Fridays are really difficult this year.	I travel our area for work, so I am often already driving. I could definitely schedule at least one a month.	The zoom meetings were well done last year, and the on-site visits the previous year. I think sometimes the host is not sure what to do with us. So literally taking us in each room and interrupting the teachers day isn't always necessary or best practice. We can observe from the door. I am guessing with all the COVID protocols at different schools that it would be important for observers to be as safe as possible - we also probably need to arrive in enough time to go through the COVID checks. The zoom meetings were nice because the staff did a short presentation and then we could ask questions. I just don't want the visit to hinder the staff's day.
Kidada	Thursday afternoons (between 12:00-5:00);	Wednesdays Mondays, Tuesdays and	4	No
